

UNDERGRADUATE AND GRADUATE STUDENT AWARD FOR RESEARCH AND CONFERENCE TRAVEL IN HISTORY 2023-24

Submit to historyawards@uwo.ca by March 15

The graduate portion of this award provides funds that may be used to support research as well as conference travel and related expenses when the student is presenting research at the conference.

Awards will be given based on academic achievement and research merit. The award committee also seeks to encourage work engaging with historical topics related to race/racism and other kinds of inequity. The number and value of awards will vary depending on the applications received. Applications must be submitted by March 15. Funds may be applied to expenses already incurred or to projected future expenses, as long as the expenses were, or will be, incurred between May 1 2023 and April 30 2024. (See the official award description on the department website.)

Name

Title of Project or Topic of Research

Destination (if traveling) or Nature of Expense

Total Expenses (anticipated or incurred)

Date of Travel/Expense

Please attach a 1-2 page statement outlining the nature of your research and the expenses you anticipate or have incurred. Provide a list of expenses, anticipated or incurred. Be specific: what locations have you visited or do you plan to visit? What materials did you or will you access there? How will this travel or expense contribute to your research?

If applicable, you are welcome to add a brief explanation of how your work engages with race/racism or other kinds of inequity. Additional information (travel itineraries, details of hotel accommodations, conference programs, web pages from museums, libraries, etc.) may also be included with your application.

Please submit this application as a single Word or pdf file.
